

Jake & Elwood's Memorial Day/Beer Week/June Brew News from Home Sweet Homebrew.

What a wondrous time to be a beer geek in Philly! Its Memorial Day weekend and Philly Beer Week extends the holiday feeling right into the middle of June. Beer is good!

And don't forget Father's Day right after Beer Week! Why not give Dad a personalized, autographed copy of George's new book, "The Complete Homebrew Beer Book"!?

Philly Beer Week: (for more information check out phillybeerweek.org)

Events we're sponsoring:

We'll be at OPENING TAP on June 3rd, pouring some intriguing things from our cellars. Tickets are still available but going fast, don't get shut out! George will be at the authors' table, signing his new book.

June 6th: The Extreme Homebrew Challenge at Jose Pistola's (josepistolas.com)

The EHC features a bountiful sampling of extreme homebrews (and PAYG commercial beers with homebrew roots) with the most extreme homebrew being chosen by Sam Calagione of Dogfish Head to be co-brewed with Dogfish for the Pro-Am Competition at an upcoming GABF in Denver, Co. (Eligible participants were already selected at the HOPS BOPS). Check with us for more information or how to get tickets.

June 10th: The Two-Wheeled Tour de Brew A 66-mile ride, led by Jeff & Lara of GOCYCLING, starting at Yards, and riding out to Sly Fox in Phoenixville. Challenging out, Schuylkill River Trail return.

June 11: 1st Annual Flashpoint Theatre Brewfest : Join our neighbors of Sansom St., Noble American Cookery and The Flashpoint Theatre in an informal homebrew competition, and beer tasting.

June 12th: The Ladies Beer Tea at The Belgian Café (thebelgiancafe.com) Ladies- want a genteel way to culminate Beer Week? Join Nancy in celebrating women brewers and beer! Special appearance of the last of the Saizanne, a collaboration brew between Suzy Woods of Sly Fox and her IPA women's beer club and her beau, Chris LaPierre of Iron Hill, Maple Shade.
